

E PLURIBUS UNUS.
Since Cleveland's day it's been my fate
To vote and always be
Enrolled and counted on the slate
Among the G. O. P.

My party's somewhere—Heaven knows
Just where today they dwell!
They vanished when young Bryan rose
And threw his silver spell.

The East, the West, the North and South—
Is there among them none
Who has more mind and less of mouth
Than this Nebraska son?

Lord, how long in the wilderness
Are we to wander blind
Before we get in our distress
A man of our own kind.

I am an honest Democrat,
Still hopeful, but not daft,
And since I know just where I am at
My vote is pledged to Taft.

Drawing Card at Lexington Colored Fair—Ringing Words From Great Civic Leader

The feature of the closing day of the nineteenth Colored Agricultural and Mechanical Fair at Lexington, was an address by Booker T. Washington, and there were ten thousand people of his race on the grounds to hear him. It was probably the most notable gathering of Negroes ever seen in Kentucky. Mr. Washington said in part:

"The Lexington Colored Fair has been the means of stimulating our people in making progress in their industrial, educational and moral life.

"It is especially appropriate that this exposition of the race's progress exists in the State of Kentucky, among the most thrifty and progressive class of our own people. I think I am safe in saying that there is no State in the Union where our people are more prosperous than in the State of Kentucky."

Men of Taste Have Found Our Display of Fall Suits

Of unusual interest. Our lines comprise every color and cloth desired by men, young men and boys who are intelligent dressers. Colors are prominently in evidence this season. The young man with ideas of fashion will have little trouble making selection; so will the man with quiet taste find a wide display to suit him.

A word about our Men's and Boys' Shoes: Before we embarked in the shoe business we investigated among the leading best lines in the country. That we were wise in our selection is proven by our daily increasing shoe business. We believe we are the only shoe people in Maysville that guarantee satisfactory wear or "money returned" on all shoes except patent and shiny leathers. Hanan, Douglas and Walkover—no other house in the State that carries those three lines.

SUICIDE

Of Former Maysville Girl — Mrs. Rachel Schatzmann Grissman Ends Life at Cincinnati

Yesterday's Enquirer.

After tucking away in bed for the night all of her little charges, Mrs. Rachel Grissman, a nurse at the Jewish Foster Home, 718 West Sixth street, went up to her own room about 9:30 o'clock last night and drank the contents of a bottle of carbolic acid. Discovered in an unconscious condition a few minutes later, she was hurried to the City Hospital where she died half an hour later, despite the efforts of the physicians to save her.

Mrs. Grissman's death was a great shock to her companions and friends at the Home. She had been employed there as a nurse for about six years. She was about 35 years old, and a son, Alvin, 16, is a window trimmer in a downtown department store. A couple of years ago, Mrs. Grissman parted from her husband because of some disagreements.

Dr. Boris Bogen of the Jewish Charities last night spoke in the highest terms of Mrs. Grissman. He knew her as a most estimable woman of the best reputation and was much interested in her work. Dr. Bogen said he had no idea of what might have been preying on her mind, and thinks she must have become suddenly mentally unbalanced.

The unfortunate young woman was a native of this city and a daughter of the late Louis Schatzmann and has many relatives here.

The remains will arrive here on the C. and O. 1:36 p. m. train and will be taken to the home of Mrs. W. L. Schatzmann in West Second street.

A few weeks ago THE PUBLIC LEDGER noted the incident that Evangelist J. E. Reed and wife had, with the Board of City Missions, reclaimed a white girl who was living with a Negro family on Hord's Hill. The girl was given clothing and well cared for and returned to her home in a neighboring town. Rev. Reed is in receipt of a letter from the girl thanking him and his wife for their kindness, and informing them that she had joined the Church and was leading a good life and that she was well and happy and made so by the kindness of the good people of Maysville and Mr. and Mrs. Reed.

RECONSTRUCTION

Of the Maysville Street Railway—Line Will Be Made Up-to-Date

The work of rebuilding the streetcar track—that portion not already embraced in the brick street limits—and putting down standard rails will begin in a few weeks.

It will be an expensive job, but it will be done right.

The roadbed is to be heavily ballasted from the L. and N. Depot to the carhous in the East End, and in the West End from Wall street to the terminus. New ties and heavier rails will be put down and new and additional cars will be added. These improvements all presage the early completion of Maysville's brick street system, from the gas plant to the car barns.

The proposition will come up for definite action at the next meeting of the City Council.

The New Suits

Have you been disappointed in ready-made suits and do you think of trying a new market? Good—let us help you. Come to Hunt's for your fall suit and a pleasant, new experience.

We have the Suits that look well, fit well, wear well. Suits more moderately priced, for quality, than any you'll find. Suits that hold their shape by reason of the careful way they're made—hand-sewed button holes, hand-finished arm holes and neck. Suits that are made to fit by women tailors of experience.

MATERIALS and COLORS carefully chosen, not only to suit Fashion's every whim, but to please fastidious women. Broadcloth, chevrot, men's suiting, chevron, zigzag worsted and serge in beautiful shades of blue, brown, cardinal, London smoke, Concord, taupe, gray and black.

COATS and SKIRTS—The variety is delightful.

"TINY MITE," the smallest horse in the world wouldn't do for Judge TAFT to ride.

It is to be hoped that Battling NELSON won't have to lick JOE GANS any more.

TRACTION lines are the surest means of keeping down railroad rates. They are not as safe as the trunk line roads, but they're a whole lot cheaper.

JUDGE TAFT is going into the campaign just like he meant business. His aggressiveness reminds one that the Judge is going to fall heir to the Roosevelt Big Stick.

It must not be forgotten that the "commodities clause" of the Hepburn Railway Rate Law was knocked out by Judge GEORGE GRAY, of Delaware, a Democrat. The Democrats should now stop abusing Judge KOHLSAAT and sweep before their own door. The Courts should know no Democrat or Republican. A square deal for all is the motto that should be nailed up over the portals of the Temple of Justice.

It is as difficult, apparently, to keep a good man down as it is to keep a good airship up.

THAT Presidential aspirant who has his headquarters in Jail stands no chance of being cheered for 90 minutes.

THE latest after the flying machine is the hookless waist for women. No buttons are required; only pull a string and the work is done. Will the big hatpin go next?

THE retail price of the Democratic campaign text-book is 25 cents. Why the price was not made "30 cents," to harmonize with the Murray and Mack Democratic comedy, the papers fail to state.

JOHN W. GATES expects a visit from WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT at Port Arthur, Texas, and when he arrives the largest watermelon on record—107 pounds—will be presented to him. No lemons for "Big BILL."

HER "PROGRAM" WASN'T SO EASILY FILLED.

A young colored girl was going to an entertainment where there would be refreshments and dancing. The white folks fixed her up fine and advanced her 50 cents. She went to the entertainment, but was back in about 30 minutes. The lady was surprised and wanted to know why she came home so soon.
The girl was very mad and said:
"Iee insulted. Iee bin insulted."
"How?" inquired the lady.
She answered:
"The first thing I did was to order a sacker of ice cream; I was eatin' de cream, and dat Nigger Jim, what works at de hotel, he come up and say:
" 'Miss Salle, is yer gwine ter dance?'
"I say: 'Yes, course Iee gwine ter dance.'
"Den he say: 'Miss Sallie, is your program full?'
"The idee—dat Nigger thinkin' one little sacker of ice cream would fill my program."

SOCIALISM AND M. O.

Socialists Regard Municipal Ownership as a Step in the Right Direction.

At the recent labor conference at Hull, England, a resolution was adopted to the effect that "socialism is the definite object of the Labor party." This party has steadily favored municipal ownership, but until this year has been unwilling to take the next and logical step of endorsing socialism. This action just taken is helpful to a clearer understanding of the relation between the two movements. Socialism stands for the collective ownership of all the means of production; municipal ownership stands for the collective ownership of a part of the means of production. The difference is one of degree, not of kind, and in Great Britain no logical line of demarcation between the two has been found.

In this country, too, the Socialist is making full use of municipal ownership. He well knows that many people will take tickets for a short ride who would be frightened away if urged to buy a through ticket. The main point is to get them started toward his ultimate goal. After a man has been enlisted in favor of municipal ownership it is comparatively easy to get him to accept the principle of public ownership of railroads, telegraphs and coal mines, although he may still not be ready to accept the whole Socialist programme, collective ownership of all the means of production, for the simple reason that he is apt to be an owner or part owner of some "means of production" himself—e. g., a shop or a store or a share or two of stock in a manufacturing plant. That is why the national platform of the Socialist party is discreetly silent on some of the cardinal doctrines of socialism. The real purpose of collective ownership of all the means of production is therefore toned down to a demand for—

"The collective ownership of railroads, telegraphs, telephones, steamship lines and all other means of transportation and communication and all land."

"The collective ownership of all industries which are organized on a national scale and in which competition has virtually ceased to exist."

"The extension of the public domain to include mines, quarries, oil wells, forests and water power."

The platform is silent about municipal ownership of lighting plants and waterworks because M. O. people are attending to that part of the Socialist programme, leaving the thoroughgoing Socialist free to concentrate his efforts on the second part of the programme as outlined above. It may look enticing, but remember that socialism doesn't intend to stop with public utilities and big corporations nor until it has swallowed up in the great state machine every vestige of private ownership of everything except what a man wears on his back or needs to furnish his home.

A SEARCHING ANALYSIS.

Municipal Ownership Beautiful in Theory, but Practically a Bid For Political Graft.

Experience has proved that the agitation for municipal ownership is usually in charge of a group of men who are looking for personal profit. When the plant or plants finally get under municipal control these men are virtually the proprietors. They dictate who shall have positions, and they usually see to it that they receive a good return in either the coin of the realm or something else of value for every position they give out. They are intent upon squeezing every dollar they can out of the plant.

Where a company or the individual gives much attention to the minutiae of a plant, the saving of a few pennies or a few dimes or a few dollars here or there, under municipal control the plants are run in a slipshod manner.

The engineers, placed in their positions more because of their political prestige than because of any ability they may possess, sit around and talk politics when the machinery is badly in need of their attention. But it is politics and not attention to duty and faithfulness that keeps them in their positions, so they give more attention to politics than they do to their duties.

The management of the plant usually devolves upon a committee of the town council. Right here is where the graft bacteria gets loose and begins to cause havoc. Some men will stand for election to council with no other thought in view than getting their hands on the light plant. They have some favorites they wish to place in office, and they likewise have a plan whereby they can squeeze the business so that many golden drops will fall into their own pockets.

Municipal ownership has been proved to be impractical in this country. Beside discouraging private enterprise, it accomplishes no real good, but eventually becomes a corrupt sore in the body politic that taints everything that touches it. In theory the proposition is a most attractive one, but when it comes to working it out in practice insuperable obstacles rear themselves in its pathway, and it is not long before ruin and finally dissolution come.—Tamaqua (Pa.) Courier.

Avoiding Class Government.

We are trying to steer a safe middle course which alone can save us from a plutocratic class government on the one hand or a socialistic class government on the other, either of which would be fraught with disaster to our free institutions, state and national. We are trying to avoid alike the evils which would flow from the government ownership of the public utilities by which interstate commerce is carried on and the evils which flow from the riot and chaos of unrestricted individualism.—F. C. M. (Editorial)

For Sale

A rich bottom farm located on the Ohio river opposite the suburbs of Portsmouth, Ohio, in Greenup county, Ky., and containing 125 acres. Every foot of it will raise tobacco and all other farm products. Above high water, and well improved with two dwelling houses and two large barns; good water for domestic and farm purposes. This beautiful farm is worth $18,000, but if sold within the next 30 days it can be purchased for $15,500 on time or $12,000 cash. For further particulars write
JAMES S. THOMAS,
1044 W. Attorney-at-Law, Portsmouth, Ohio.

About October 1st Mr. and Mrs. Elsie Clift will leave the farm and take up their residence in the delightful Forest avenue home of Mrs. John I. Mathews. The latter will occupy her property at the corner of Union and Second streets.

Mrs. John L. Whitaker and daughter, Mrs. Farnsworth, will leave in a few days for Scranton, Miss., for the betterment of the latter's health. Mr. Whitaker will be away from home for some time, and during her absence Mr. and Mrs. Burdette Walton will occupy apartments in her flat.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barkley returned last evening from a ten days' outing on their gasoline launch. They ascended the Kentucky river over two hundred miles, enjoying the picturesque scenery of that romantic portion of old Kentucky. Both are well and stood the long trip admirably.

Mrs. Jennie T. Nelson of Dover is the new Matron at Hayswood Hospital, succeeding Mrs. Thomas H. Sweeney. Mrs. Nelson recently resigned as Matron at Midway Orphan College and comes highly recommended to fill the position. She has many relatives and friends throughout the county who will be pleased to hear of her success.

Monday Governor Edgington was building a scaffold preparatory to the repairing of a chimney at the residence of Mr. James H. Hall in West Third street, and the jarring in the construction of the platform weakened the chimney and it toppled over onto Gov. and almost put him out of business. Besides several severe scalp wounds, which required the attention of a Doctor, he was painfully bruised about the body.

Sam Lewis, the colored porter at Thomas's wholesale liquor store in Market street was badly injured yesterday afternoon. At the time of the accident he was engaged in oiling the slides of the elevator, and was standing on the crossbeam of the carriage to accomplish his purpose. Forgetful of another crossbeam at the third floor, in the ascent of the carriage his body was caught between the two timbers and he sustained injuries that will lay him up for some time.

John Wilson Townsend, writing in The Lexington Leader of Sunday, has a charming article about the poet, Byron Forsythe Willson, elder brother of Governor Willson, who with his parents, Hiram and Ann Calvin Willson, resided in Maysville for a year; the Governor being born here October 13th, 1846. The poems of Forsythe Willson possess true pathos and genius and he is said to have been a handsome and polished gentleman of noble mien. He died in 1867.

DON'T BLAME HER

For she cannot help it. Women are often cross, irritable, hysteric, and declare they are driven to distraction at the slightest provocation. Men cannot understand why this should be so. To them it is a mystery because in nine times out of ten this condition is caused by a serious feminine derangement.

A remedy is necessary which acts directly upon the organs afflicted, restoring a healthy normal condition to the feminine system, which will quickly dispel all hysterical, nervous and irritable conditions. Such is

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

The following letter serves to prove this fact.

Mrs. Mattie Copenhaver, 315 So. 21st St., Parsons, Kans., writes: "For two years I suffered from the worst forms of feminine ills, until I was almost driven frantic. Nothing but morphine would relieve me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought me health and happiness and made me a well woman."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

CHARLES MARTIN

The Colored Murderer, Who Shot and Killed His Step-father, in the Toils of the Law

John Smith, the colored man, who was shot by his step-son yesterday morning at his home near Minerva, died shortly after receiving the fatal wound.

The murderer was caught at Sandis and delivered into the hands of county officials, who brought him to this city and placed him in Jail last night.

It seems the man first assaulted his mother and knocked her down with a bed slat for chiding him about his lazy habits and not working and help support the family, and it was during her absence in search of an officer to have him arrested for striking her, that the shooting occurred.

Charles Martin is about 28 or 30 years old, and is a very bad and dangerous man, if all

HEALTHY PLANTS

Require the Most Careful Attention as Well as Good Soil.
Did you ever see a rosebush which, despite the most beneficent environment of soil of sunshine—and of atmosphere, seemed never to achieve a healthy growth.
A ton of manure will not help a plant that has a canker eating out its heart. You must destroy the cause before you can remove the effect.
You cannot cure Dandruff and Baldness by rubbing on hair lotions, and rubbing in vaseline, etc.
You must look to the cause of the trouble—it's a germ at the roots of your hair which causes it to fall out. Newbro's Herpicide destroys the germ, and healthy hair is the sure result.
Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

ANOTHER BARN

Sacrificed By Lawless Marauders—Heavy Loss in Campbell County

A fire of mysterious origin early Saturday morning destroyed the large barn containing about three thousand pounds of tobacco and farm implements on the farm of Harvey Kinney, near Mentor, in the upper part of Campbell county, and caused a loss of nearly $3,000, partly covered by insurance.

The barn had been built only a few months at a cost of $1,500, and only recently Kinney had stored all of this year's tobacco crop in the building.
The fire was the work of incendiaries who had threatened the owner several weeks ago.

COMING EVERY DAY....

My heavy purchases of goods for the fall and winter trade. When all in my stock will be complete and of the very best that can be produced.

ALWAYS IN STOCK,

A complete line of Red Canvass Hams and Breakfast Bacon and finest Leaf Lard, packed specially for my trade from young, healthy hogs. The only house in Maysville that handles these specially made goods.

PERFECTION FLOUR,

Ground from new wheat, is now coming, and as the wheat crop in the section where this famous Flour is made is unusually fine, I have no hesitancy in offering the Flour to my trade as the very best that can be produced. Every barrel guaranteed.

Blue Blended Coffee is one of my hobbies. I buy my Coffees green from one of the largest importers in large quantities, have them roasted as I need them and they are always sold to my trade fresh. I have no competition in these fine goods, either in quality or price.

FINE TEAS

A specialty. For those who useiced teas I recommend "Heno" Tea, a very fine mixed tea sold only in packages.

A big supply of TIN CANS and Mason Fruit Jars at lowest prices. In fact, my stock is always full, complete and up-to-date in every respect. No stale or unwholesome goods ever offered.

Cash paid for Butter, Eggs and such Country Produce as I can handle in my business.

Always a full supply of Fruits and Vegetables.

HIDDEN DANGERS.

Nature Gives Timely Warnings That No Maysville Citizen Can Afford to Ignore.

DANGER SIGNAL No. 1 comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kidneys are sick. Well kidneys excrete a clear, amber fluid. Sick kidneys send out a thin, pale and foamy or a thick, red, ill-smelling urine, full of sediment and irregular of passage.

DANGER SIGNAL No. 2 comes from the back. Back pains, dull and heavy or sharp and acute tell you of sick kidneys and warn you of the approach of dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently.

Here's Maysville proof:

Mrs. Harvey Lyons, living in the Western part of Maysville, Ky., says:
"In my estimation Doan's Kidney Pills are an ideal kidney remedy, and I have no hesitancy in so expressing myself. My husband was bothered a great deal by a severe pain across his back, and although his condition was never so serious that he was obliged to lay off from work, he nevertheless was in misery. An added source of annoyance was the irregular action of the kidney secretions, this symptom denoting that his trouble arose from disordered kidneys. Being advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills, he procured a supply at J. J. Wood & Son's Drugstore, and they acted just as beneficially in his case as in many others which he had read about. A short use entirely cured him, and up to the present time there has been no return of the trouble. Recently I was suddenly afflicted with a similar trouble, but began taking Doan's Kidney Pills, and from the beneficial results already received I look forward to a complete cure."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

The anniversary of the death of President McKinley was observed last Sunday throughout the country.
